Federal grants and loans will be used to pay any institutional charges (such as tuition and books) before any refunds will be given to the student. Non-institutional charges (such as late fees, insurance charges, library fines, etc.) will not be paid by financial aid unless authorized by the student (see below). Please answer the following (this form will be considered incomplete, and financial aid may be delayed, if a response is not provided). Response will be in effect until such time that you submit a new form requesting a change.

Check one box below (required):

- I do not authorize non-institutional charges to be paid with my financial aid. I understand that any non-institutional charges I incur are my responsibility.
