STUDENT WORD OF HONOR

“Place me behind prison walls—walls of stone ever so high, ever so thick, reaching ever so far in the ground there is a possibility that in some way or another I may be able to escape; but stand me on that floor and draw a chalk line around me and have me give my word of honor never to cross it. Can I get out of that circle? No, never! I’d die first.” —Karl G. Maeser, Founding Principal

I understand that my enrollment at LDS Business College is based on my observance of the Honor Code and its standards. I commit to living that standard. I further understand that the Honor Code office may contact my bishop about my eligibility for endorsement.

LDS Business College Honor Code Summary*

LDS Business College exists to provide an education in an atmosphere consistent with the ideals and principles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. That atmosphere is created and preserved through conduct that reflects those ideals and principles. Faculty, administration, staff, and student body at LDSBC voluntarily live principles of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Observance of such is a specific condition of enrollment. Those not members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints must also maintain the same standards of conduct, except church attendance. All who represent the College should endeavor to maintain the highest standards of honor, integrity, morality, and consideration of others “at all times and...in all places”. (Mosiah 18:9).

DRESS AND GROOMING STANDARDS

The dress and grooming of men and women should be modest, neat, clean and dignified. Modesty and cleanliness should be personal hallmarks of grooming. The standards are outlined by the Board of Trustees and the For the Strength of Youth publication. The application may vary at various CES institutions but the principles remain the same at all Church schools.

Men: Men should maintain a clean and well-cared-for appearance with clean and neat hairstyles that avoid extreme styles or colors trimmed above the collar, leaving the ear uncovered. Sideburns should not extend below the earlobe or onto the cheek. Mustaches should be neatly trimmed and not extend below the corners of the mouth. Men are expected to shave daily; beards are not acceptable. Earrings and body piercing are not acceptable. Shoes should be worn on campus.

Women: A clean and well-cared-for appearance should be maintained. Clothing is inappropriate when it is sleeveless, strapless, backless or revealing; exposes the midriff; has slits above the knee; or is form-fitting. Dresses and skirts must be knee length or longer. Hairstyles should be clean and neat, avoiding extreme styles and colors. Excessive ear piercing—more than one per ear—and other body piercing is not acceptable. Shoes should be worn on campus.

ACADEMIC HONESTY: Students are to be honest and to help others do the same. All forms of academic dishonesty, cheating, plagiarism, and similar behaviors, is unacceptable.

ECCLESIASTICAL ENDORSEMENT: All students must obtain an ecclesiastical endorsement each new academic year. Endorsements expire annually in April. Completed endorsements must be received and processed by the Registration Office for students to register for class. LDS students may be endorsed only by the bishop of the ward in which they live who holds their Church membership record. Other students are endorsed by the bishop of the LDS ward in which they currently reside or a bishop of a College student ward.

*This document represents only a summary of selected honor code policies. Students are required to live by the entire Honor Code available online or from the Dean of Students Office.
